

List of commands available with Boomchat

Note: Higher rank can use commands of lower rank.

User & VIP commands level 1-2

/me	Send a special message on the chat. The message will appear in a different colour to the normal post Syntax : /me text
/msg	Send a private message directly to the cat. Private message you send or receive cannot be viewed by other users, only you and target can view these messages Syntax : /msg username text
/seen	Lets you know the time and date on which a user has been seen on the chat for the last time. Must be followed by a valid username. Syntax : /seen username
/away	Change the status of your account to away Syntax : /away
/ignore	Hide chat and private content from the specified user Syntax : /ignore username
/ignoreclear	Reset and remove all users from your ignore list Syntax : /ignoreclear
/friend	Add a user to your user friends list Syntax : /friend username
/clear	This command can only be used in private chat by users that will clear the conversation and reset the private log data refer to level 3 to know more about other function for moderator and admin with the /clear command Syntax : /clear

Private chat

Private message in main chat

With the command /msg followed by a valid username, you can send a private message directly to the main chat window. Private message sent in the main chat window cannot be viewed by other users.

Private chat window

To open a private chat with a user, click on a username in the user list, then on the slide down menu click on private chat

Friends list

Adding a friend

In Boomchat you can now add users to your friends list in 3 different ways 1- Click on a username in the user list, then select option add to friend 2- Type the /friend command in chat followed by username you desire to add to your friends list 3- Click on add friends icon located on top of the private window.

Pending friend request

Once someone send you a friend request you will see it appear in your pending friend section you will have choice to accept or decline the friend request. You can view friend request profile by clicking the avatar on the request box.

Removing friend

In the drop down menu of your friends you will have option to delete friend from your list. When removing a user from your friend list it will automatically remove yourself from his/her friend list.

Friends status

	Online
	Away
	Offline